Importance, but the only foundation to be dependent upon for continued advancement or permanence.

How can Legislation be commensurate with its duties if it be ignorant of its limits or the value of its charge, or if parties interested are the only reference appealed to, to govern Legislation.

If universal suffrage is a fixed fact, then thorough and universal education is a necessity. And in that connection the women of the land would be more reliable to cast a saving vote, than an equal number of the other sex. If history is reliable then education should be stringently compulsory, and of the coloured race abide with us, it should form no exception, compulsory education would make good citizens and insure good voters. Simply because every one would be interested in the well being of the state its honour and prosperity. Diversity of occupation, based upon scientific knowledge would take the place of rote ratation and practice and that spirit of holy emulation instituted and _____ might anticipate with confidence additions to the world's knowledge. Every land has its quota of providential inherent gifts, but it requires that the phosphorous of the brain should be educated stimulated to action to investigation and research into the heretofore hidden riches direct from the creator.

We have commenced a new departure, there is a virgin field of unknown wealth which awaits effort and immortality to those who seek. The past should be scrutinized, the obsolete and injurious _____ the future with doings of less advanced or more ignorant past will _____ which will act like a gangrene upon the body politic ----- Order is Heaven's first law and Evolution is one of the decrees of the Almighty to ignore that factor is to battle against the laws of the Almighty which governs the Universe.
